

NURS337 : Research and Evidence-based Practice in Nursing

This course integrates principles of scientific literacy, information management and person-centered care to promote health and safety of individuals within the context of organizational systems. Students will apply research, evidence-based practice, and quality improvement concepts to nursing practice.

Credits 3

Prerequisite Courses

NURS221

Co-Requisite Courses

STAT210