

Sonography Student Progression

In the event of a student unable to progress with the entering class they have been accepted into and follow the assigned curriculum plan for that class, the student may be placed in the next available class based on the number of students in each course and the sequence of courses. It may become the student's responsibility to secure the new clinical site reassignment. Transition activities may be required before and upon return.